

OFFICIAL GIFTS RECEIVED BY THE DUKE OF KENT DURING 2020

From	Description	Date Received	Reason Given
Individual	Cufflinks	10/02/2020	Given to commemorate visit to Deakin & Frances Jewellery Factory during Birmingham Awayday
Brentwood Borough Council	Book - 'Brentwood in 50 Buildings' with personal inscription by the author, Sylvia Kent	18/02/2020	Given at HRH's visit to open refurbished Brentwood Borough Council building
Essex Scouts	Red necker with black border at edge with Essex Scouts in white and Essex County Badge embroidered at point of necker	18/02/2020	Given during a visit by HRH to Essex County Scout Camp
Essex Scouts	Paperback booklet - 'Skreens Park Roxwell - A Short History'	18/02/2020	Given during HRH's visit to Essex Scouts County Camp, Skreens Park
Lodge Coaches	First Edition 1:76 Scale Die-Cast Model of Bedford Coach coloured yellow and blue in box	18/02/2020	Given at visit to mark Lodge Coaches' centenary
Windsor Saddlers & Belt Company	Round, red leather coaster with Scots Guards Cap Badge	13/03/2020	Gift to mark HRH's many years as Colonel
Mark Dowie, Chief Executive, RNLI	Book 'Surviving the Storms' - HRH contributed	12/06/2020	Gift given to HRH as President, RNLI

	the foreword as President of the RNLI
Steven Isserlis CBE, Artistic Director, International Musicians' Seminar Prussia Cove	Classical Music CD by Steven Isserlis	12/10/2020	Sent to HRH as Patron, International Musicians' Seminar Prussia Cove
Individual	Book - Homage to P G Wodehouse	15/10/2020	Sent to HRH as Patron of the P G Wodehouse Society
South Staffordshire College	Metal pen stand made by students at South Staffs College with Parker Pen	24/10/2020	Given during HRH's visit to the College
Individual	Last in a series of books about the Scots Guards	09/11/2020	Given by author to HRH as Colonel, Scots Guards